Alexander Bezborodov and Sergey Morozov participated in the Annual Arbitration conference in Moscow

Alexander Bezborodov and Sergey Morozov, lawyers from the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice Group of BEITEN BURKHARDT, participated in the annual conference of the Association of participants promoting the development of arbitration – one of the leading conferences dedicated to the most pressing issues and the development of arbitration in Russia. The event was held in Moscow on 25 April 2019.

Partner Alexander Bezborodov shared ideas with colleagues about the possibilities for resolving disputes arising from state contracts in arbitration and cited as an example the state of affairs in the Federal Republic of Germany.

Associate Sergey Morozov discussed the most recent trends in mediation in Russia and the planned legislative reform of mediation.

BEITEN BURKHARDT would like to take this opportunity to thank the Association of participants promoting the development of arbitration for their cooperation and the excellent organisation of the conference.
